We are fortunate to have a bishop who is committed to ongoing study and reflection, to this end I commend to you the following which is a portion of his monthly online Bible

Grace and peace,
Pastor Bruce

study, which can be found on the Northwestern MN website. The theme is doubt and faith.

Bishop Larry writes: In her wonderful new book, Outlaw Christian: Finding Authentic Faith by Breaking the "Rules," author Jacqueline A. Bussie of Concordia College, Moorhead, lists and responds to six unwritten rules or "laws" that many North American Christians simply take for granted. Law #3 reads as follows: Don't doubt. Doubt is faith's opposite, and is therefore sinful.

Many of us have tacitly absorbed Law #3. It may or may not have been taught to us, explicitly, in Sunday School or confirmation class—but we have acquired this "law" with our mother's milk. And it is killing us. That's why we need to realize that Law #3 simply is not true. How do we know that? The Bible tells us so—again, and again, and again.

Doubt Can Be Good for the Life of Faith

Although I commend to you the entire third chapter of Outlaw Christian, I want to close this Bible study with Dr. Bussie's six reasons why doubt is actually good for the life of faith:

- 1. Doubt Acknowledges Ambiguity: "Ambiguity...means...'having multiple meanings or interpretations, being uncertain and difficult to comprehend.'...For example the sun, which feels so magnificent as it caresses your face, gives you cancer while doing so. Our beautiful country, which was built on the backs of slaves, exalts freedom....The people who love us best also hurt us the most."

Doubt Admits Paradox as the Truth About the World: "What is to be done with a world as wrecked and redeemed as this one? Each story—the gospel's promises and CBS News' sadness—makes us doubt the truth of the other. But the outlaw Christian holds on to the truth of both, refusing to choose between them. It's not an either/or, but a both/and."

Burton Grover
 Burton Grover, age 83, died June 25, 2016 at Highgate Senior Living, his home since 2013. Burt is survived by his wife of 56 years, Cathy Grover; his children Dan, Steve, Matt (Tom) Grover, Beth (Antonio); and grandchildren Sarah and Andrea Duato-Grover.

Burt was born November 14, 1932 in Breckenridge MN and moved to Glyndon in 1943 when his father took over the family farm. He attended St. Olaf University and the University of Minnesota where he earned a PhD in statistics. He met his wife Cathy when they were both teaching high school outside of Minneapolis. They married on June 18, 1960 and later moved to Manitowoc, Wisconsin where they had all four of their children. They moved to Bellingham, Washington in 1969 when Burt took a job as an education professor at Western Washington University. He retired from WWU in 1994.

Burt was very active throughout his life. He coached high school wrestling, basketball and football early in his teaching career. He was an avid runner and handball player. He enjoyed playing bridge, attending the Oregon Shakespeare Festival, opera, reading, and developing a comprehensive genealogy of the Grover family. In his retirement, Burt and Cathy traveled extensively, with many trips throughout the United States and to Europe, Asia, South America and Mexico to visit their grandchildren. He was able to celebrate his 50th wedding anniversary with Cathy and children in Kona, Hawaii in 2010. Burt was a steady, guiding light for his family, and he will be missed.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday August 13 in Bellingham. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the WWU Lutheran Campus Ministry, 1720 Harris Ave., Bellingham WA 98225:

Message from Pastor
Bruce

cont'd from Page One

3. Doubt Signals Authenticity: “To have doubt means to understand God rightly—that is, as the divine Infinite and Complete who can never fully be understood by the finite, incomplete human person....”
  4. Doubt Breeds Creativity and Openness: “People who doubt are seekers. Certainty’s pitfall is that it can close us off from the views of other people, sometimes even to the point of being unable to listen to them....Outlaw Christians live by two important truths: (1) Understanding and agreement are not the same thing. I can understand you even though I disagree with you, even though the law of our culture teaches us that this is impossible. And (2) because I am a broken person, my views and my actions may very well be wrong.”
  5. Doubt Builds Community and Interconnectedness: “Doubt...say s, ‘I do not know everything. You hold insights I need. God and you both have things you have not yet shown me, but maybe someday will if I am lucky and listen closely enough.”
  6. Doubt Drives Activism: “The opposite of doubt is not faith but resignation and its favorite cloak, passivity. People who accept the status quo are those who do not doubt that everything in the world is just as it should be....People who doubt, on the other hand, ask tough questions of themselves and of people in power, and these questions drive their activism.”
